10 BENANCIO GARCIA III,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 STEVEN HOBBS, in his official capacity as
14 Secretary of State of Washington,

15 Defendant.

No. 3:22-cv-5152

COMPLAINT FOR THREE-JUDGE PANEL

16 “It is a sordid business, this divvying us up by race.” League of United Latin Am. Citizens
17 v. Perry, 548 U.S. 399, 511 (2006) (Roberts, C.J., concurring in part, concurring in the judgment 18 in part, and dissenting in part).

19 I. INTRODUCTION

20 1. Plaintiff brings this action to challenge the constitutionality of Washington State
21 Legislative District 15 in the Yakima Valley as an illegal racial gerrymander in violation of the 22 Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to Constitution of the United States.

23 2. As part of the 2021 redistricting process, the Washington State Redistricting 24 Commission (the “Commission”) approved, and the Washington State Legislature (the 25 “Legislature”) amended and ratified, a plan for the redistricting of state legislative districts in 26
27

1 which Legislative District 15 was purposefully drawn to have a Latino citizen voting age
2 population (“CVAP”) of 50.02%.

3 3. The Equal Protection Clause bars redistricting “on the basis of race without
4 sufficient justification.” Abbott v. Perez, 138 S. Ct. 2305, 2314 (2018) (citing Shaw v. Reno, 509
5 U.S. 630, 641 (1993)).

6 4. This new Legislative District 15 can only be explained by race. The district’s odd
7 shape, which crosses five county lines, bisects two of the largest cities in Central and Eastern
8 Washington and divides certain communities of interest while combining other communities with 9 divergent interests, flies in the face of traditional districting principles (as well as Washington state
10 constitutional and statutory requirements). Contemporaneous public statements of the voting
11 members of the Commission (each, a “Commissioner”) provide further evidence that a majority
12 Latino CVAP legislative district in Central and Eastern Washington was a precondition to the 13 Commission’s approval of any state legislative district plan.

14 5. Because “racial considerations predominated over others, the design of the district
15 must withstand strict scrutiny. The burden thus shifts to the State to prove that its race-based 16 sorting of voters serves a ‘compelling interest’ and is ‘narrowly tailored’ to that end.” Cooper v.
17 Harris, 137 S. Ct. 1455, 1464 (2017) (citing Bethune-Hill v. Va. State Bd. of Elections, 137 S. Ct.
18 788, 800 (2017)).

19 6. There was no compelling interest that justified using race as the predominant factor
20 in creating Legislative District 15. While complying with Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act is a
21 compelling state interest, the state has the burden of showing that it had a “strong basis in evidence”
22 to conclude that Section 2 required its action. Cooper v. Harris, 137 S. Ct. at 1464 (quoting Ala.
23 Legislative Black Caucus v. Alabama, 575 U.S. 254, 278 (2015)).

24 7. Two Commissioners stated that Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act compelled a
25 safe Democrat, majority Latino CVAP district. But that was solely based upon a short presentation
26 solicited by the State Senate Democratic Caucus and created by an interested advocacy
27

1 organization. Neither the Commission nor the State of Washington conducted independent
2 analysis to determine what Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act required. A presentation by an
3 interested party is not enough to create a compelling interest. As Justice Alito warned in an
4 analogous redistricting case, “[a] group that wants a State to create a district with a particular
5 design may come to have an overly expansive understanding of what § 2 demands. So one group’s
6 demands alone cannot be enough.” Abbott v. Perez, 138 S. Ct. at 2334.

7 8. The state must also prove its action was narrowly tailored, which the state cannot 8 do if it does not carefully evaluate and consider race-neutral alternatives. See, e.g., Cooper v.
9 Harris, 137 S. Ct. at 1471. The Commissioners’ stated prerequisite of a majority Latino CVAP
10 district necessarily means the Commission did not consider race-neutral alternatives. Moreover, it
11 is unclear how the Commission arrived at a 50.02% Latino CVAP in Legislative District 15 other 12 than to meet its preferred racial balance.

13 9. Because race was the predominant motivating factor in creating Legislative District
14 15, but such race-based sorting neither served a compelling government interest nor was narrowly
15 tailored to that end, it violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

16 10. Plaintiff seeks a declaration that Legislative District 15 is invalid and an injunction
17 prohibiting the Defendant from calling, holding, supervising or taking any action with respect to 18 State Legislative elections based on Legislative District 15 as it currently stands.

19 II. PARTIES

20 11. Plaintiff Benancio Garcia III is a United States citizen, over the age of 18, and 21 registered voter in the State of Washington. He currently resides in Legislative District 15. He 22 intends to vote in future elections.

23 12. Defendant Steven Hobbs is being sued in his official capacity as the Secretary of 24 State of Washington. Under state law, the Secretary of State is “the chief election officer for all
25 federal, state, county, city, town, and district elections,” RCW 29A.04.230, responsible for “the administration, canvassing, and certification of . . . state primaries, and state general elections,”<sup>1</sup> RCW 43.07.310. In addition, “declarations of candidacy for the state legislature . . . in a district comprised of voters from two or more counties”—such as Legislative District 15—are to be filed with the Secretary of State. RCW 29A.24.070.
26
27

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This Court has jurisdiction to hear Plaintiff’s claim pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343(a)(3) and 1357. This Court has jurisdiction to grant declaratory relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202. This Court has jurisdiction to award Plaintiff’s costs and attorneys’ fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988, and 52 U.S.C. § 10310(e).

14. A three-judge district court is requested pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2284(a), as Plaintiff is “challenging the constitutionality of . . . the apportionment of a[] statewide legislative body.”

15. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendant. Defendant Steve Hobbs is a state official who resides in Washington and performs his official duties in Olympia, Washington.

16. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff’s claims occurred and will occur in this judicial district. In addition, Defendant is a state official performing his official duties in the Western District of Washington.

IV. FACTS

A. Washington State Redistricting

17. The Washington state constitution directs that “[i]n January of each year ending in one, a commission shall be established to provide for the redistricting of state legislative and congressional districts.” WASH. CONST. art. II, § 43(1); see also RCW 44.05.030.

<sup>1</sup> “The plan approved by the commission . . . shall constitute the districting law applicable to this state for legislative . . . elections, beginning with the next elections held in the year ending in two.” RCW 44.05.100. Thus, the Secretary of State administers legislative district elections based on the boundaries established by the Commission’s redistricting plan.

1           18.     The Commission is composed of five members. Each of the “leader[s] of the two
2 largest political parties in each house of the legislature . . . appoint one voting member.” These
3 four voting members select a fifth, nonvoting member to serve as the Commission’s chairperson
4 WASH. CONST. art. II, § 43(2); see also RCW 44.05.030.

5           19.     The Washington state constitution requires that “[e]ach district . . . contain a
6 population . . . as nearly equal as practicable to the population of any other district” and that “[t]o
7 the extent reasonable, each district . . . contain contiguous territory, . . . be compact and convenient,
8 and . . . be separated from adjoining districts by natural geographic barriers, artificial barriers, or 9 political subdivision boundaries.” WASH. CONST. art. II, § 43(5). In addition, the Commission’s
10 redistricting plan “shall not be drawn purposely to favor or discriminate against any political party 11 or group.” Id.

12           20.     The Commission’s redistricting plan must also, “insofar as practical,” follow
13 certain other traditional redistricting principles, including that “[d]istrict lines should be drawn so 14 as to coincide with the boundaries of local political subdivisions and areas recognized as 15 communities of interest” and that “[t]he number of counties and municipalities divided among 16 more than one district should be as small as possible.” RCW 44.05.090.

17           21.     In order to adopt a redistricting plan, it must be approved by “[a]t least three of the 18 voting members” of the Commission. WASH. CONST. art. II, § 43(6).

19           22.     The Commission is required to “complete redistricting . . . no later than November 20 15th of each year ending in one.” Id.; see also RCW 44.05.100.

21           23.     “Upon approval of a redistricting plan,” the Commission “shall submit the plan to 22 the legislature,” which may amend the Commission’s plan within the first 30 days of the next 23 regular or special legislative session by “an affirmative vote in each house of two-thirds of the 24 members elected or appointed thereto.” RCW 44.05.100.

25           24.     After such 30-day period, “[t]he plan approved by the commission, with any
26 amendment approved by the legislature, shall be final . . . and shall constitute the districting law
27

1 applicable to this state for legislative and congressional elections, beginning with the next elections
2 held in the year ending in two.” Id.

3 25. Following the Commission’s adoption of a redistricting plan, it “shall take all
4 necessary steps to conclude its business and cease operations . . . on July 1st of each year ending
5 in two . . . .” RCW 44.05.110.

6 26. If the Commission has ceased to exist, the Legislature may “adopt legislation
7 reconvening the commission for purposes of modifying the redistricting plan.” RCW 44.05.120(1).

8 B. The History of Legislative District 15

9 27. Over the past 90 years, Legislative District 15 has changed during each round of 10 redistricting, but never as drastically as between 2012 and 2022. Historically, the district has 11 covered a substantial portion of Yakima County. (From 1982 through 2001, it also included 12 portions of neighboring counties, but never as far northeast as Othello or as far east as Pasco).

13 28. A map of Legislative District 15 from 1931 through 1957 is shown below. The 14 district included only a portion of Yakima County. STATE OF WASH., MEMBERS OF THE 15 LEGISLATURE 1889-2019 174 (2019).

29. A map of Legislative District 15 from 1957 through 1965 is shown below. The districted included only a portion of Yakima County. Id. at 177.

30. A map of Legislative District 15 from 1965 through 1972 is shown below. The district included only a portion of Yakima County. Id. at 180.

31. A map of Legislative District 15 from 1972 through 1981 is shown below. The district included only a portion of Yakima County. Id. at 182.

32. A map of Legislative District 15 from 1982 through 1991 is shown below. The district included portions of Yakima and Benton Counties. Id. at 184

34. A map of Legislative District 15 from 2002 through 2011 is shown below. The district included a portion of Yakima, Klickitat, Skamania, and Clark Counties. Id. at 188.

35. A map of the current version of Legislative District 15, in effect since 2012, is shown below. The district once again includes only a portion of Yakima County. Id. at 190.

C. The 2021 Redistricting Process

36. On December 10, 2020, the Speaker of the House of Representatives announced the appointment of April Sims as a Commissioner representing the House Democratic Caucus and the Senate Majority Leader announced the appointment of Brady Piñero Walkinshaw as a Commissioner representing the Senate Democratic Caucus. E.g., Press Release, Washington State House Democrats, House, Senate leaders announce their appointees for Redistricting Commission (Dec. 10, 2020), <https://housedemocrats.wa.gov/blog/2020/12/10/house-senate-leaders-announce-their-appointees-for-redistricting-commission/>.

37. On January 15, 2021, the Senate Minority Leader announced the appointment of Joe Fain as a Commissioner representing the Senate Republican Caucus and the House Minority leader announced the appointment of Paul Graves as a Commissioner Representing the House Republican Caucus. See, e.g., Eric Rosane, Former Lawmakers Joe Fain, Paul Graves Tapped by Legislative GOP Leaders as Members of Redistricting Commission, THE CHRONICLE (Centralia), Jan. 15, 2021, available at <https://www.chronline.com/stories/former-lawmakers-joe-fain-paul-graves-tapped-by-legislative-gop-leaders-as-members-of,260219>.

38. On January 30, 2021, the four voting Commissioners appointed Sarah Augustine as the nonvoting fifth member and Chair of the Commission. E.g., Pat Muir, YAKIMA

HERALD-REPUBLIC, White Swan woman tapped to lead state Redistricting Commission, Feb. 8, 2021, available at https://www.yakimaherald.com/news/local/white-swan-woman-tapped-to-lead-state-redistricting-commission/article\_37671834-78c9-5cec-a5a5-d9d1aab30f72.html.

39. Between February 2021 and November 2021, the Commission held Special Business Meetings, Regular Business Meetings, and Public Outreach Meetings. See, e.g., Washington State Redistricting Commission, Business Meetings, <https://www.redistricting.wa.gov/commission-meetings>; Washington State Redistricting Commission, Public Outreach Meetings, <https://www.redistricting.wa.gov/outreach-meetings>.

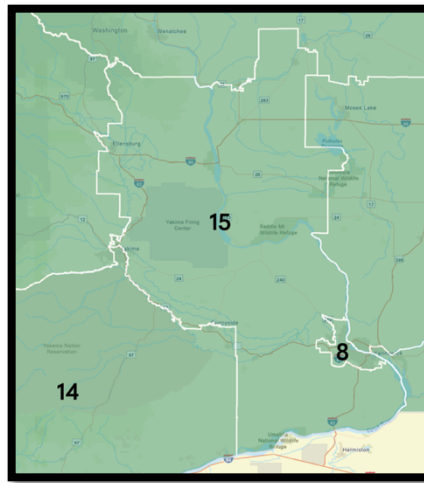

40. On September 21, 2021, each of the four voting Commissioners released a proposed legislative district map to the public. E.g., Washington State Redistricting Commission, Legislative Maps, <https://www.redistricting.wa.gov/commissioner-proposed-maps>.

41. No Commissioner proposed a version of Legislative District 15 that resembled the district as drawn by the Commission's final redistricting plan. No proposal, for example, contained the cities of Pasco or Othello, and none contained a majority Latino CVAP. See id.

42. The map of Legislative District 15 initially proposed by Commissioner Sims is shown below. It combined the Yakama Indian Reservation with parts of Yakima and communities along Interstate 82 to Grandview. Commissioner Sims stated that her map "recognizes the responsibility to create districts that provide fair representation for communities of interest" and that "[m]aintaining and creating communities of interest" and "[c]entering and engaging communities that have been historically underrepresented" were "values guid[ing]" her efforts. Id.

43. The map of Legislative District 15 initially proposed by Commissioner Walkinshaw is shown below. It merged cities around Yakima into a district that stretched north beyond Ellensburg and south to the Columbia River. Commissioner Walkinshaw stated his goals were to “[m]aintain and unite communities of interest and reduce city splits” and “prioritize[e] the needs of . . . historically underrepresented communities.” His plan also “[c]reate[d] a majority-Hispanic/Latino district” in the neighboring Legislative District 14, which was “55.5% [Hispanic/Latino] by Voting Age Population (VAP)” and “65.5% people-of-color by VAP.” Id.

44. The map of Legislative District 15 as proposed by Commissioner Fain is shown below. It included the City of Yakima and consisted of the eastern third of Yakima County. Commissioner Fain “place[d] existing school district boundaries at the cornerstone of his legislative framework.” His plan also “create[d] seven majority-minority districts statewide, and one additional majority-minority citizen voting age population (CVAP) district.” Id.

45. The map of Legislative District 15 as proposed by Commissioner Graves is shown below. It combined the northeastern portion of Yakima County, including the cities along Interstate 82, with most of Benton County apart from Richland and Kennewick. Commissioner Graves's plan "focuses on communities of interest and is not drawn to favor either party or incumbents" and featured eight "majority-minority" districts. Id.

46. On October 19, 2021, the Washington State Senate Democratic Caucus circulated a presentation by Dr. Matt Barreto, a professor of political science and Chicana/o studies at UCLA and co-founder of the UCLA Voting Right Project. See Presentation by Matt Barreto, Assessment of Voting Patterns in Central/Eastern Washington and Review of the Federal Voting Rights Act, Section 2 Issues, (Oct. 19, 2021), <https://senatedemocrats.wa.gov/wp-content/uploads/2021/10/Barreto-WA-Redistricting-Public-Version.pdf>.

47. Upon information and belief, Dr. Barreto was hired by the Washington Senate Democrat Caucus, not by the Commission, the State of Washington or the Legislature.

48. The presentation argued that, in order to comply with Section 2 of the Voting Right Act, a majority Latino CVAP district in the Yakima Valley that voted for the Democratic Party's preferred candidates is required. See id.

49. The presentation included analysis of voting patterns for just two statewide general elections, the 2012 U.S. Senate race between Maria Cantwell and Michael Baumgartner and the 2020 Governor race between Jay Inslee and Loren Culp. The presentation did not include analysis

1 of voting patterns in primary elections, or any other analysis, exploring whether voting patterns
2 could be explained by partisanship, rather than race. See id.

3 50. Importantly, the presentation also did not consider or suggest any race-neutral
4 alternatives despite showing that the districts initially proposed by Commissioners Sims and
5 Walkinshaw would have voted for the Latino bloc's preferred candidate over the majority bloc's

7 51. Only two claimed "VRA Compliant" legislative district options were presented.
8 One district contained a Latino CVAP of 60% and the other contained a combined Latino and 9 Native American CVAP of 60%, without any explanation for why a 60% threshold was chosen or 10 why Latino and Native American voters should or could be grouped together for Voting Rights
11 Act purposes. See id.

12 52. Despite the brevity and potential bias of the analysis, Commissioner Walkinshaw
13 issued a statement on October 21, 2021, two days after the presentation, stating that he and 14 Commissioner Sims "will be releasing new statewide legislative maps early next week." Press
15 Release, Washington Senate Democrats, New definitive analysis by UCLA Voting Rights Expert:

20 53. Commissioner Walkinshaw also stated that "as the first ever Latino commissioner,
21 it has been extremely important for me to lift up and elevate Hispanic voters, and undo patterns of 22 racially polarized voting, particularly in the Yakima Valley." Melissa Santos, Proposed WA
23 redistricting maps may violate Voting Rights Act, CROSSCUT (Oct. 21, 2021),
24 https://crosscut.com/politics/2021/10/proposed-wa-redistricting-maps-may-violate-voting-rights-
25 act.

54. On October 25, 2021, Commissioners Sims and Walkinshaw released revised legislative plans, both of which incorporated the “Yakama Reservation” district option from Dr. Bareto’s presentation, which achieved a 60% majority CVAP by combining Latino and Native populations.

55. On October 26, 2021, less than three weeks before the Commission’s statutory deadline, Washington State Senate Democrats issued a press release holding out Dr. Bareto’s presentation as “definitive,” stipulating that “the final adopted map must include a majority-Hispanic district in the Yakima Valley.” Press Release, Washington Senate Democrats, Walkinshaw releases new VRA-Compliant Legislative map (Oct. 26, 2021), <https://senatedemocrats.wa.gov/blog/2021/10/26/following-new-analysis-commissioner-walkinshaw-releases-new-legislative-map-compliant-with-voting-rights-act/>.

D. Legislative District 15 under the 2021 Plan

56. Shortly before midnight on November 15, 2021, the Commission “voted unanimously to approve a legislative redistricting plan.” Order Regarding the Washington State Redistricting Commission’s Letter to the Supreme Court on November 16, 2021 and the Commission Chair’s November 21, 2021 Declaration (Redistricting Order), No. 25700-B-676, at 2 (Wash. Dec. 3, 2021).

57. Shortly after midnight on November 16, 2021, the Commission submitted “a formal resolution adopting the redistricting plan” and “a letter transmitting the plan” to the Legislature. Id.

58. The Legislature approved minor adjustments to the Commission’s final plan. See H. Con. Res. 4407, 67th Leg., 2022 Reg. Sess. (Wash. 2022).

59. The redistricting plan approved by the Commission, together with the Legislature’s amendments, constitutes Washington state’s districting law for legislative elections, beginning with the upcoming 2022 elections. See WASH. CONST. art. II, § 43(7); RCW 44.05.100(3); see also Redistricting Order at 4.

60. The map of the new Legislative District 15 as defined by the Commission's approved plan is shown below. It disregards traditional districting principles such as compactness, maintaining communities of interest, and respecting political subdivisions or geographical boundaries.

61. The shape of Legislative District 15 is strained and noncompact. Its northwest and southeast corners are narrow slivers of land that reach into the cities of Yakima and Pasco respectively, where a substantial majority the district's population resides. The district extends north to Mattawa and northeast to Othello, based upon information and belief, for the sole purpose of including those cities' substantial Latino populations. The interior of the district is sparsely populated.

62. The odd shape of Legislative District 15 cannot be explained by political or natural boundaries. It stretches into parts of five counties, yet contains not a single whole county. Its western and eastern sections are divided by the Yakima Firing Center, Rattlesnake Hills, the Hanford Nuclear Site, and the Columbia River. Despite these geographic boundaries, Legislative District 15 does not follow major thoroughfares. To travel just from Sunnyside to Pasco via

1 Interstate 82 and Interstate 182 would require crossing through both Legislative Districts 16 and 8
2 before reentering Legislative District 15 in Pasco.

3 63. The Commission ignored communities of interest in creating Legislative District
4 15. The district's boundaries not only split up urban communities like Yakima and Pasco, but 5 smaller cities like Grandview, Moxee and Union Gap. And while Legislative District 15 divides
6 communities of shared interest, it also groups together communities with distinctly different
7 interests. For example, it extends to Pasco, Othello, Mattawa and the Hanford Nuclear Site, none
8 of which have previously been placed in the same legislative district as the city of Yakima or any 9 portion of Yakima County in the state's history.

10 64. The boundaries of the new Legislative District 15 approved by the Commission do
11 not resemble prior Legislative District 15 boundaries or those of any publicly-proposed districts
12 by any Commissioner during the 2021 redistricting process.

13 65. However, the new Legislative District 15 does contain a Latino CVAP of 50.02%, 14 a figure so barely sufficient to constitute a majority that it is statistically impossible to have 15 occurred by random chance.

16 66. The boundaries of the new Legislative District 15 were clearly negotiated and 17 approved predominantly on the basis of race in order to create a majority Latino CVAP legislative 18 district.

19 67. No compelling interest justified the predominant consideration of race in creating 20 Legislative District 15.

21 68. The Commission cannot justify its decision to use race as the predominant factor in 22 drawing Legislative District 15's boundaries under Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act. The 23 Commission could not have a strong basis in evidence to believe that it was required to create a
24 new Latino-opportunity district to avoid liability under Section 2 because the Commission did not 25 conduct any analysis of racial voting patterns or of what Section 2 required. See, e.g., Cooper v.
26 Harris, 137 S. Ct. at 1464 (“[S]aid otherwise, the State must establish that it had ‘good reasons’ to 27

1 think that it would transgress the [Voting Rights] Act if it did not draw race-based district lines.”
 2 (citing Ala. Legislative Black Caucus v. Alabama, 575 U.S. at 278)).

3 69. Two Commissioners cited the presentation from the UCLA Voting Rights Project,
 4 but one advocacy group’s demands alone are insufficient to create a strong basis in evidence that
 5 justifies sorting voters by race. See, e.g., Abbott v. Perez, 138 S. Ct. at 2334 (“A group that wants
 6 a State to create a district with a particular design may come to have an overly expansive
 7 understanding of what § 2 demands. So one group’s demands alone cannot be enough.”)

8 70. Even if there were a compelling state interest in creating Legislative District 15
 9 using race as the predominant factor, Legislative District 15 is not narrowly tailored to achieve
 10 that interest. The Commission did not perform any analysis whatsoever of race-neutral
 11 alternatives, including, for example, what percentage of Latino voters would be necessary to have 12 the opportunity to elect their candidates of choice. See, e.g., Cooper v. Harris, 137 S. Ct. at 1471
 13 (“To have a strong basis in evidence to conclude that § 2 [of the Voting Rights Act] demands such 14 race-based steps, the State must carefully evaluate whether a plaintiff could establish the Gingles
 15 preconditions . . . in a new district created without those measures.”).

16 V. CLAIMS

17 A. Violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution

18 71. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth herein, the 19 allegations in the paragraphs above.

20 72. Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution provides that “[n]o
 21 State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of 22 the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due 23 process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.”

24 73. Race was the predominant factor motivating the Commission’s decision to draw
 25 the lines encompassing Legislative District 15.
 26
 27

1           74.     The Commission's race-based sorting of voters in Legislative District 15 neither
2 served a compelling state interest nor was narrowly tailored to that end.

3           75.     Therefore, Legislative District 15 violates the Equal Protection Clause of the 4 Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

5           76.     Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law other than the judicial relief sought here.
6 The failure to temporarily and permanently enjoin the conduct of elections based on Legislative
7 District 15 will irreparably harm Plaintiff by violating his constitutional rights.

8
9                                   VI.     PRAYER FOR RELIEF

10          77.     WHEREFORE, Plaintiff asks for the following relief:

- 11               a.     Convene a court of three judges pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2284(a);
- 12               b.     Declare that Legislative District 15 is an illegal racial gerrymander in 13 violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution;
- 14               c.     Issue a permanent injunction enjoining Defendant from enforcing or giving 15 any effect to the boundaries of Legislative District 15, including an injunction barring Defendant
16 from conducting any further elections for the Legislature based on Legislative District 15;
- 17               d.     Order the creation of a new valid plan for legislative districts in the State of 18 Washington that does not violate the Equal Protection Clause;
- 19               e.     Award Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in this action
20 under 42 U.S.C. § 1988, 52 U.S.C. § 10310(e) and any other applicable law; and
- 21               f.     Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
